Tarleton-Stansberry.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of S. A. Stansberry, Smith-town, when his daughter, Miss Nina B. Stansberry, was united in marriage with Chester Herbert Tarleton, of this city. The ceremony which united the couple in marriage was said by the Rev. I. A. Barnes, of Benton's Ferry, and the marriage was solemnized in the presence of a number of friends and relatives. The interior of the home was a bower of beauty, garden flowers of various kinds and greenery having been attractively used in the decorations.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Anna Stansberry, as maid of honor, while Thomas D. Haun acted as best man to the groom.

The bride was lovely in a modish coat suit of dark blue tulle with which she wore a blue hat and harmonizing shoes and gloves. Her costume was completed with a corsage of bride's roses. Her maid of honor was becomingly costumed in a dark blue suit with harmonizing accessories and wore a picture hat and a corsage of pink roses. An informal reception was held following the ceremony and the bride and groom were showered with congratulations and best wishes.

Miss Stansberry is a young woman of unusual charm and personality and was employed until recently in the offices of the Consolidation Coal company. Mr. Tarleton is a son of Charles Tarleton, of near Shinnston. He holds a responsible position with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company.

Mr. and Mrs. Tarleton are leaving today for Washington, D. C., and New York, where they will spend their honeymoon, and upon their return will take up their residence at 311 Hamilton street, where they will be at home after July 25.
